Rental and Utility Assistance

If you were unable to pay your rent and/or utilities due to COVID-19, or if you were granted a rent and/or utilities deferral, you may qualify for assistance to help pay back rent and utilities.

United Way's 211 service is a comprehensive source of social service resources designed to help families access the services they need 24-hours a day.

To utilize this free resource, simply call or text 211 from your cell phone to speak with a community resource specialist.

For more information, you can also visit www.211.org (or scan the QR Code below with your smartphone).
